

PONT INTERNATIONAL GORDIE HOWE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE

Cette publication est également disponible en français sur demande.

Good afternoon,

Here are a few things we wanted you to know about:

Community Benefits Year-In-Review Report

Over the past year, the Gordie Howe International Bridge project team has been busy working with more than 50 agencies and associations to deliver the numerous workforce and neighbourhood initiatives set out through the project Community Benefits Plan. Since the Plan's 2019 launch, new partnerships, programs and community investments have benefitted local residents, businesses and organizations within the host communities and beyond. In addition to quarterly reports, the project team is pleased to share comprehensive details of the Community Benefit Plan's progress through the first Community Benefits Year-in-Review Report.

Open Call for Local Community Group Participants

Applications are being accepted until Friday, August 20, 2021, for six open volunteer positions to participate on the Community Benefits Local Community Group. The Local Community Group assists the project team in the delivery of the Gordie Howe International Bridge Community Benefits Plan. Composed of 16 stakeholders that collectively represent the communities of Detroit/Delray, Windsor/Sandwich, Windsor-Essex County and the Greater Detroit Area, this group acts as informal partners throughout the implementation of the Plan, providing valuable feedback and insight to help the team better understand community and stakeholder perspectives.

One representative for each of the following areas are needed:\

- The Sandwich Community
- The Delray Community
- Windsor-Essex County
- The Greater Detroit Area
- Daily Cross-Border Commuter – Windsor
- Daily Cross-Border Commuter – Detroit

The Local Community Group also includes representatives from select First Nations, municipal, agency and community organizations. Learn more and apply now.
